

You are a Noyce Alum in an inner city school. Assume your personal and family life are good. You are smart and know your value as a science/mathematics teacher.

What do you need to keep you there for at least 10 years?

Twenty Noyce alums entered rural schools in Florida in 2009 and went to five different counties.

How many will still be there after ten years?